Tintin started to get out of the boat but Clarice raised her gun at him. He ducked as she fired, severing the longboats rope and sending then careening into the ocean. Tintin looked up and expected to see her caught and struggling, but surprisingly she wasn't even standing to watch them be taken by the current. She was running after them. Can she ever run, he thought to himself as he watched her challenging the current as if running in a race.
